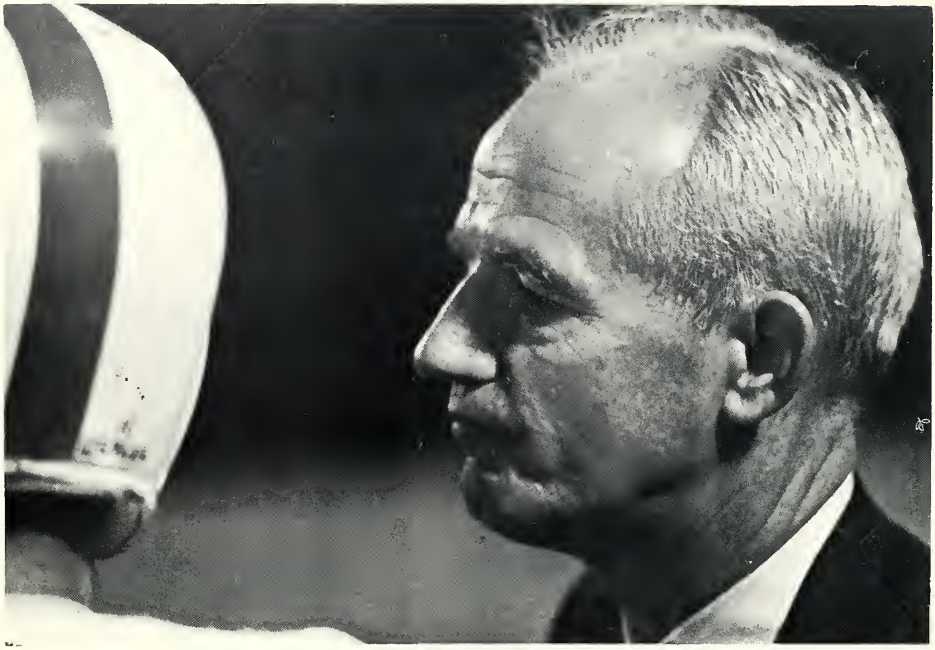
THE 1964 TOWER

IN DEEP APPRECIATION . . .



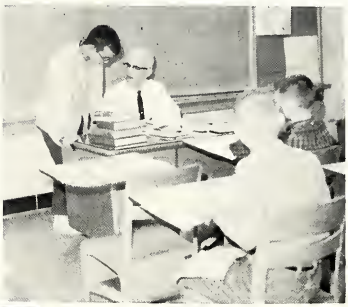
Searching for humility, seeking for character--we, the 1964 TOWER Staff, found a person who possesses a pleasing combination of all the fine qualities that make a person outstanding. "Doc", as most of us call Edward Bencini, is one of the best loved members of the U-High Faculty. "Doc" always seems to find time to help anyone with a problem, from a math exercise to a football play. He is sincerely interested in the student and has gained the respect and admiration of the entire student body.

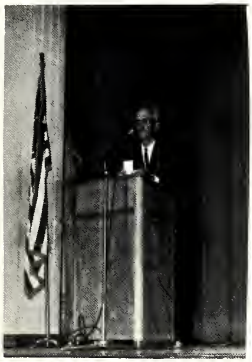
Among our memories of high school are the many times we've heard "Doc" talk of "When I was a boy" or "We could have used some larger players this year, but those we had came out and played real fine ball." This year "Doc" coached a team that came out on top.

"Doc", as you glance through our book, please remember, though your name and face may not grace the pages in all the years to come, your influence will be ever present.

In these four small words, we hope to express what a million could not convey: Thank You for EVERYTHING!!

OF LEARNING,





FOR MOMENTS OF TRIUMPH,

AND OF ENCOURAGEMENT

The course of time is an infinite threat--there is no start, there is no end. Life is measured in time. The times and experiences which we all shared, have come to more value through sharing.

Cherished thoughts are many as we recall rewards for work well done, our enthusiasm for extra-curricular activities and our goal for graduation. Each day brings another challenge, another trial or an attainment.

Looking back over our years at U-High, we can recall many momentous changes in our lives: our teachers, our school, our interests, our activities and our attitudes--all have changed. We also have gained values which will throughout all time--knowledge, morals, and deep friendships.

Perhaps in the future when you look at this book, it will bring back pleasant memories and thus serve as a connecting link to the past.

After accomplishing what we set out to do this year, the football Lynxes deserve a lot of congratulations. The four brave seniors, three of whom were captains (Ron Dickerson, Bunny Howe, and Gary Morrison), did an excellent job. The rest of the team was made up of two sophomores, and twelve hard working juniors.

Our very successful 5-2 season was due to hard work, and great coaching by the greatest coach in the world, "Doc". The climax to this exciting season came when we played Christopher in our final game for the title of co-champion. Our reward for this first conference year--lots of respect, the trophy and the title of co-champion.

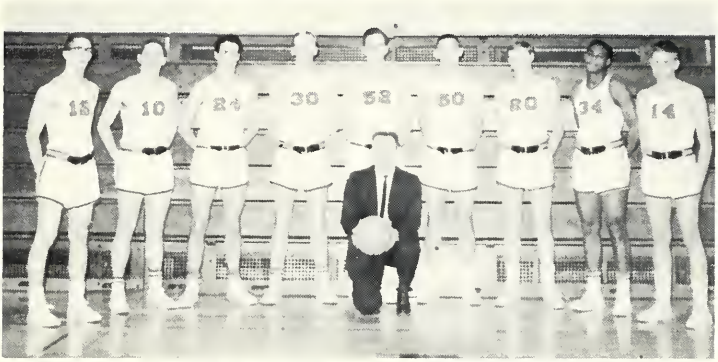
Wrestling

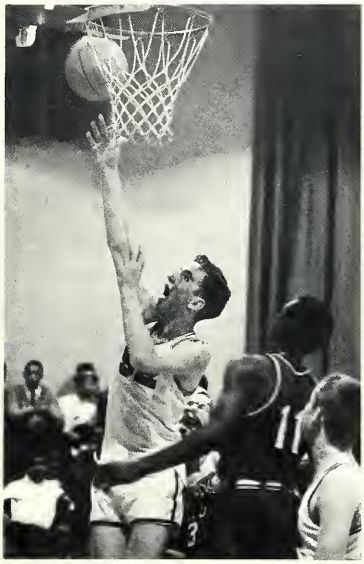
The Wrestling Team: ROW I: S. Smith, Carter, Griffin, J. Smith, Beyler. ROW II: Coach Wagner, Morrison, Jacobini, Johnson and Coach Stotlar.

Under the fine coaching of Dr. Stotlar and Larry Wagner, our U. High Wrestlers have had a successful year. Although this was the first year for many of the wrestlers, we made a good showing against teams much larger than ourselves. Because of sickness and the small number of wrestlers, we were unable to field a complete team, thus making it difficult to win overall team competition. However a number of individual wrestlers compiled fine, winning records. They are Gary Morrison, Keith Beyler, Bob Jacobini and Howie Webb. Other winners are Keith Lingle, Ron Johnson and Chuck Carter.

Varsity Basketball



Varsity team members are: D. Juhlin, S. Howe, R. Murphy, J. Lewis, R. Dickerson, T. Higgins, D. McCoy, I. Garrison, C. Rhine and Coach Schatz.



The 1963-1964 basketball season marked the first year for U. High in the Black Diamond Conference. This year was a tough one for the U. High team. The Lynxes started the season impressively but were soon handicapped by injuries and bad luck. Because of hard work and the will to win the Lynxes finished the season with a good conference record.

Since the team consisted of a majority of juniors this year, only three players will be lost by graduation: David McCoy, Ron Dickerson and Steve Howe. Although small in number these three seniors contributed much to the team effort.

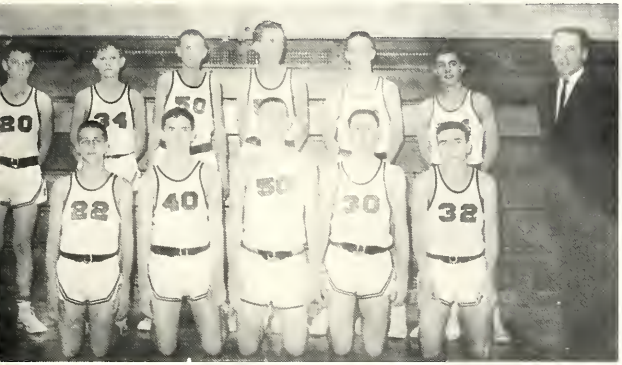
Junior Varsity Basketball



This year's J.V. team members were: ROW I: Tedrick, Heisler, Higgins, Aikman, Thomas. ROW II: Van Ausdal, Geilhausen, Belbas, Dwyer, Norman, Renzaglia, Coach Schatz.

Mr. Schatz's J.V. team had an impressive season as one of the best J.V. teams in U-High in the last few years.

The junior Lynxes had a very high scoring offense and a pressing defense, which seems to show a very good future Varsity squad.

The high scorers were Tim Higgins and Dick Thomas. They led the team to a victorious season.

Freshman Basketball

his year's Freshman team although tting off to a slow start, managed have a successful season.

The team was lacking in height but made up for it with speed and a strong will to win.

The boys owe a lot to their coach Dave Henson, who in his first year of coaching worked hard with the boys. He gave them drive for position on the team.

Junior High Basketball

ROW I: Voigt, Rist, Chaney, Dickerson, Borkon, Stewart, Kraft, Nauman, Vavra, Greer. ROW II: Bedford, Mark, Rahe, Limpus, J. Downey, Harrison, Bottje, West, Mr. Ventetuolo. ROW III: Brown, Wilkinson, Iubelt, Shryock, Edleman, B. Johnson, Dr. Stotlar. ROW IV: Rescher, Beyler, J. Johnson, M. Downey, Renzaglia, Freeburg.

As in the past, the Junior High Lynxes had a fine season. The eighth graders finished with a 14-3 record to tie for first place in both the conference and the tournament. The seventh graders finished their season with a tie for second place in the conference and a second in the tournament. The overall record for the seventh grade was 13-4.

In the annual eighth grade-freshman game, the eighth graders came close to beating the freshmen, but the freshmen's shooting ability and height proved to be too much for them.

Jr. High Cheerleaders are Barb Franklin, Barb Bunten, Marlene Lurie, Mary Taylor, Barb Shea, Robin Feigenbuam and Stephanie Alcorn.

JR HIGH

The 1963-64 Student Council started its work early in the summer of 1963 with eager plans for the coming year. After the rush of fall elections, Freshman initiation and Homecoming was over, the council took a close look at the ideals and goals of the student council. Many new Projects were created because of this evaluation. The council was not only active in U-High affairs, but in community and state projects as well. The council took an active part in the Tri-High Council and Pat Taylor was elected secretary. Even on the district level our council was well represented when Julian McHale was elected Vice President.

French

This year U-High had two foreign language clubs--Spanish and French. In order to join these clubs a person would have to have at least one year of that particular language. Both of the clubs held meetings once a month consisting of speakers and films on the countrys customs. Thanks to the help of the sponsors, Mrs. Bork and Mrs. Brackett both clubs had a very active year.

Tower

Each year the TOWER is produced by a group of hard-working students, with the help of their advisor, this year being Dr. Seiferth. Although this was Dr. Seiferth's first attempt at working as a yearbook advisor, she has been very helpful to us. This TOWER was guided to completion by its Co-Editors Vicki Erickson and Kay Ellen Klimstra, with the assistance of the many section editors. The only real criterion for being a staff member is that you are willing to work hard and give all your time to the yearbook. Working on the yearbook is time consuming, but rewarding. This year's staff has spent many afternoons and Saturdays making layouts, writing copies and doing the many other tasks which go toward finishing this book that you now hold.

Tower Times

This year's Tower Times was a real success with the help of many U-High Students. Mrs. Glenn, the sponsor, encouraged and kept the group cheerful even through the tightest moments. Beginning the year off right with a newspaper on the first day, the Editor Jacki Greer, and the staff had one of the best papers.

Tower Times Editor works on stories for the next issue.

Typists Janis Miller, Betty Jean Chaney, Karen Bedwell and Jessica Pratt work hard on stencils.

The Debate Team and the Speech members started this year with the debaters first place in the speech and debate contest and Vicki Erickson in original oration, tying for first. Throughout the year the speech and debaters worked, practiced, and evaluated themselves. They went on several trips to take part in meets with other schools. The art of expressing yourself is a great achievement and one to be proud of.

Pep Club

The main goal of Pep Club is to promote better school spirit. Although this is only the second year for Pep Club at U-High, it has been very successful. This success is due to the hard work of the President Pat Taylor, the officers and the enthusiastic members.

Pep Club has worked on many projects. Some of these included; planning pep assemblies, pep rallies and filling the halls with posters advertising anything from games to dances.

Pep Club has proven itself a useful and necessary asset to keeping up U-High's School spirit.

G.A.A.

G.A.A. was a great success this year. Miss Goller along with the officers planned many exciting and worthwhile activities. One of the first events was a progressive dinner in honor of the new members. Aside from these extra projects, these pep-filled girls battled it out on the hockey field or in the gym, by playing various sports such as hockey, volleyball and basketball. The F.H.A.-G.A.A. dance (commonly known as Twirp) was a great success due to the enthusiastic student body.

ROW I: Petraitis, Harrison, Brandon. ROW II: Tessel, Gumm, Dunning, Rice, Curran, Hong, Greer, Arnold, Miss Goller. ROW III: K. Taylor, Dunning, J. Miller, Bach, Hahn, VanAusdal, Lewis, Tudor. Twirlers; ROW I: Lurie, S. Feigenbaum, R. Feigenbaum. ROW II: Tally, Alcorn, Miller.

The University High School Band, under the leadership of Mr. Berry, completed the most successful year in the history of U-High. Led by this year's majorette, Susan Farris, the lettergirls, the twirlers and the band performed at U-High's Homecoming half time, marched in S.I.U.'s Homecoming Parade and added spirit and enthusiasm to many of our home football games.

Two new additions to making our band a better success were the new Pep Band, which played at many of the basketball games, and the six twirlers.

The girls, boys, and mixed choruses include all high school students interested in singing. The year begins with practicing for the Choral Clinic, then in December the choruses perform at Shyrock, the Nativity Scene in front of the Holden Hospital, and in an assembly given for the faculty in Furr Auditorium. In the spring there is a State Contest and a Spring Sing. The Chorus, directed by Dr. Taylor, was the largest it has ever been in the history of U-High and one of the best.

ROW I: McClary, Beauford, Anderson, Lean, Bach, Wharton, Rice, Richards. ROW II: Biggs, Hinners, DeJarnett, Howe, Gillespie, Griebel, Mercer, Walker.

Madrigal I, probably the busiest of all the music groups, presented several performances this year. The Madrigals are chosen from the school chorus by their musical ability.

The Madrigal II group did not perform as much as the Madrigal I, but practiced hard towards being a member of Madrigal I.

The Future Homemakers of America, one of the largest and most active clubs at U-High, worked this year to promote a growing appreciation of homemaking.

Led by Rosemary Brown as President and Mrs. Heisler as sponsor, the club achieved it's purpose. Some of their many activities, included the St. Louis trip, Daddy Date Night, Pre-game supper, F.H.A. Week, F.H.A.-G.A.A. Dance, and the Mother Daughter Reception. Through F.H.A. the girls have gained a better understanding of home life.

Key Club

The U-High Key Club, sponsored by the Kiwanis Club and Dr. Charles Taylor, worked hard to be of service to Carbondale. Some of their activities have been selling Christmas trees to help finance their club, taking food baskets to needy people, keeping the trophy case clean, selling refreshments at some of the football games and sponsoring the Expresso House party. They have regular meetings in which they discuss their duties and responsibilities.

Hard-working Key Club members take time out to keep our trophy case clean.

Science

The Science Club was developed for students with outside interests in science. The main purpose of the organization was to develop a more thorough interest in the fields of science. The club's activities included many educational field trips. Each member was encouraged to enter a project in the science fair.
All the students in the Science Club felt it was both beneficial and interesting.

Library

Those students with an interest in the Library found great reward in being Junior Librarians.
The Junior Librarians worked during their extra time and during study halls. Some of their duties included shelving books, checking books in and out and helping to find certain materials.
This year's Library Club was composed of thirteen girls and one brave boy. One of the annual activities of Library Club is giving a tea for the faculty members.

ROW I: Ladd, Melvin, McHale. ROW II: Brewer, Hearn, Hughs, Mrs. Melvin, Brandon, Weinacht, Handley, Alcorn, Benson.

Dear Tower,

It seems like we were mere children when we first stepped into the halls of U-High as Freshmen. We've learned a great deal since then--we've laughed a lot, cried a little and shared more good times than we ever visualized. Now, our high school days are over and we're going out into the adult world. We're a little scared but we must look ahead. This is a great school --be proud of it!! We've loved it, will miss it and remember it always.

The Seniors

P. S. Keep up the swinging school spirit.

To A School We'll Remember With Fondness And Dreams

S.V./K.K.

Dear Tower,
Whew! Prom is finally out of the way. We thought we'd never get it done. All those work (?) meetings and financial problems gave us a real time. As the day grew closer we began to panic, but it came out just right. We are looking forward to our Senior year with high hopes--and a trace of sorrow. It's our last year and we intend to make the best of it.

Sophomores

Dear Tower,
This was the year we went from green Freshmen to experienced upperclassmen. And what a year it was! Although we were in homework up to our ears, we still found time for Key Club, Chorus, Dance Club, French Club, and everything else which would get us out of the house on a week night. This was also a year of growing up and realizing that our high school education is more than just a good time. Next year?--We'll have the greatest Prom ever!!!

Dear Tower,
It's hard to believe that our Freshmen Year is over. We never thought that we would make it!! Having recuperated from initiation we found ourselves joining clubs, attending our first High School Homecoming and looking forward to After-Game Dances. Our classes have been interesting and not as hard as we expected. On the whole, this year has been very rewarding and all of us are anticipating our next three years at U-High.

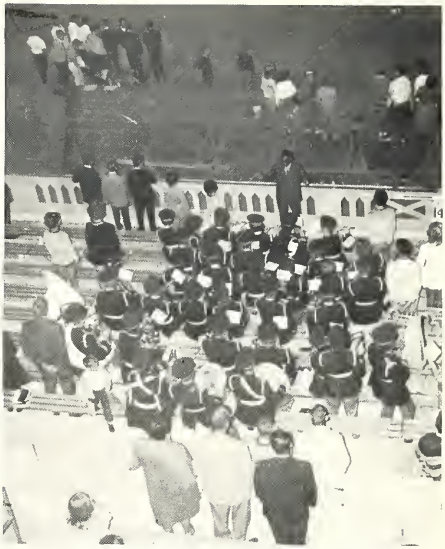
"The Queen's Dance"

Three sisters -- Three attendants

With Homecoming came . . . Autumn Leaves



Homecoming festivities started Wednesday night with a bonfire, sponsored by Pep Club, which created high spirits for the coming activities. The following evening, at the coronation, Polly Ramsey received the traditional crown and septer. Clear skies enabled the band, letter girls, and twirlers to perform at the half of our game with Nashville. Autumn leaves decorated the S. I. U. Ballroom for our dance--the climax to the 1963-64 Homecoming season.

"Orders from the headman"

The cheerleaders this year have done more than the traditional duties. They, along with the Pep Club have created a new burst of school spirit. They have shown originality and creativeness through new cheers and formations and also the Varsity's new uniforms. They have been more than willing to accept their office. They proved this by planning and carrying out the Christmas Dance, writing a weekly column for the newspaper and sponsoring an After Game Dance with special guest Atlas Lynx.

The peppy Varsity cheerleaders were: Kathy Taylor, Anne Rist, Janis Miller, Susan Freeberg, Maggie Davis.

This year's spirited Junior Varsity cheerleaders were: Mary Lou Anderson, Debbie Graper, Ellen Potter and Marcia Miller.

Christmas holidays are always filled with parties, caroling and tournament games. The main school event of this season was the Christmas Dance, sponsored by our Cheerleaders. Santa had a youthful air about him--he must have gone on a crash diet because he lost his round belly. The snow had forgotten us as the tournament games came and went, but it appeared just in time to make Sno-ball's dance, "Old-fashioned Christmas", a white one. While outside the cold, white snow lay under the full moon, inside Queen Jeanne Merz and her court danced beside the warm lights of the Christmas tree. Although the vacation was topped with snowflakes, icicles and fun, it ended all too soon and we returned to the routine of school.

Pastimes

This year U-High had many new and varied activities. The gym was filled with enthusiastic students, taking part in clever and funny pep assemblies. Under the direction of Mr. Berry musical students organized a pep band. Mr. Sill's and Mr. Holbrook's speech and debate groups brought home many trophies.

During the Christmas holidays, while most students were enjoying a good wet snow ball fight, the ambitious ones followed Mr. Hashey to the pool for life-saving instruction. Finally, students found relaxation and enjoyment in the traditional noon gab sessions in the rec-room.

From Deadline to Deadline . . .

VICKI: Well, Kay, we have had the distinct honor (?) of being editors for our dearly beloved 1964 yearbook. Now that it's done what do you have to say.

KAY: Done!?! I still have another year to go. You're the one who should be making witty comments about finishing.

VICKI: Me, witty? But what will you ever do without me to buy butterscotch, bring you sandwiches and furnish apples?

KAY: Probably get s k i n n i e r ! Even though it took a great deal of hard work, patience and determination, it was fun.

VICKI: We also have many people to thank for their help. Bob Miller from the Photographic Service took all our Organizations pictures, our staff worked and the administration was very cooperative.

KAY: Don't forget Mrs. Seiferth. Even though she was new she tried to get us organized and help with the finances. She did get upset when we didn't quite meet our deadline, but that's what she was for.

VICKI: We were ready to tear out our hair at times, but we kept going. Remember those many occasions on which we would have burned the whole mess if anyone had had a match?

KAY: Our staff had successes and failures, good ideas and bad. It is not only how "well" or how "badly" we have done, but what we have gained from our experiences.

VICKI: We have certainly learned a lot this year. Now that the last page has been sealed, we can only hope that as this book is read the effort that has gone into it will be appreciated.
